- Kep & Kampot are quiet beach towns – a soothing seaside jewel famed for delicious seafood and absolute relaxation.
- Relax in the tranquility of the Sihanoukville coast. Settle into the lush life with our suggestions of luxury getaways on Cambodia's picturesque islands.

TRIP ITINERARY

day by day program

DAY 1 – SIEM REAP ARRIVAL / WELCOME TO CAMBODIA!

On arrival in Siem Reap, your tour guide will meet you as you exit from the Restricted Area at the airport and offer you a private transfer (60 minutes) to your hotel.

Overnight in Siem Reap (4 nights)

DAY 2 (B/D) - SIEM REAP / FULL DAY ANGKOR TOUR WITH SUNRISE

Today rise early to catch the spectacular sunrise over the world's largest religious ruins of Angkor Wat and discover this mighty temple at dawn, regarded by many as the quintessential Angkor experience. The temple's greatest sculptural treasure is its 1-mile-long bas-relief that wraps around the walls of the outer gallery along with the 2000 figures of Khmer Devas and Apsaras. After exploring the ruins in detail led by your professional tour guide, return to the hotel for a late leisurely breakfast.

Optional Angkor Dining Experience (subject to supplement charges):

- Private Champagne Breakfast in Angkor
Enjoy a relaxing Champagne breakfast in a beautiful traditional Khmer wooden house overlooking the picturesque royal bathing pool of Srah Srang – a luxurious and peaceful conclusion to a perfect Angkorian morning.
- A private picnic Khmer lunch near Srah Srang “The Royal Baths”
Enjoy a private traditional Khmer lunch at the beautiful traditional Khmer wooden house overlooking the royal bathing pool of Srah Srang regarded as the quintessential Angkor experience.

Later this afternoon, depart to explore the encroaching jungle Ta Prohm, also known to be the undisputed capital of the “Kingdom of the Trees”. Once home to 600 exquisite dancers, Ta Prohm is a wondrous site, with giant fig and kapok trees strangling the ancient stonework in a photogenic interplay of man and nature. This temple has been featured in several Hollywood movies such as Tomb Raider, Indiana Jones, and Two Brothers.

Continue to discover the ancient fortified city of Angkor Thom, built in the 10th century by the greatest Khmer ruler, King Jayavarman VII (1181 – 1201). Travel to the Victory Gate of Angkor Thom and walk along the 8m-high laterite wall (500m) of the ancient city to the relatively unvisited and magical East Gate. The crematoria built against the outside of the city wall are best seen from up on the wall and give rise to the popular name of — Gate of Death. Then take another 1.5 Km walk to Bayon temple “The Giant Smiling Faces temple”. The structure of the giant faces of the Bayon temple is staggering in its construction. Sixteen chapels inside the structure indicate its religious importance, while on the outer perimeter over 1,200 meters of exquisite bas-relief record scenes of daily life from 11th century Angkor. Its third level is stunning – 49 towers are adorned with 172 smiling faces of the omnipresent Avalokitesvara.

Move on to visit the nearby Terrace of the Elephant, and the Terrace of the Leper King to view their detailed stone carvings. From there walk through the shaded parkland to visit the triple-tiered mountain temple of the Baphuon, also known as the Pyramid temple in Angkor. As the sun begins to set, walk to the Ta Kav Gate (West Gate of Angkor Thom) to view the beautiful sunset over the rice fields and the reflection of the golden light over the city gate.

Dinner with Apsara Dance Performance & Siem Reap's night market tour

Finally, enjoy your enchanting evening with authentic Khmer cuisine while witnessing the hundred-year-old "Royal Ballet of Cambodia" or "Apsara Dance". Stroll around the live Siem Reap night market before returning to your hotel for a good night's sleep.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 3 (B/L) - SIEM REAP / GO OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Today, your guide will take you through timeless rural Cambodian villages and countryside escaping from crowds and going beyond Siem Reap's limits to discover Beng Mealea, 'Lotus Pond' in Khmer, for a unique jungle experience. Undiscovered for centuries, Beng Mealea is one of the very few temples of which elevated wooden walkways allow you to walk above the ruins' collapsed galleries and towers whilst shaded by the jungle canopy, giving a very 'Indiana Jones' feel to the experience.

Lunch will be served at "Bong Thom Khmer House", a nice local restaurant on the outskirts of Siem Reap that offers the real taste of Khmer food.

After the lunch break, the famous Banteay Srei temple "the Citadel of Women". Built in pink sandstone, the walls are covered in exquisitely preserved carvings of unusual delicacy. Because of its small size, fairy-like atmosphere, and extraordinary examples of Khmer sculpture, this temple is often a favorite among visitors.

Conclude today with Kampong Phluk "Harbour of the Tusks", a fascinating fishing community on the fringes of the magnificent Tonlé Sap Lake, Southeast Asia's largest freshwater lake. Embark on a captivating boat trip to see its glory as you pass through the floating village where the fisherman and their families live in stilted houses. Relax and enjoy the beautiful scenery dominated by the tranquility of the lake that dots the landscape.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 4 (B) - SIEM REAP / DESIGN YOUR OWN DAY

Enjoy a free day at your leisure. Relax and reflect on your memorable journey so far.

Or you may opt for other activities/tours:

Option 1: Private Khmer Cooking Class with a local market visit

This morning at 9 AM, travel the local way with a Remork (Tuktuk) – an easy and comfortable, to explore a local market, where the colors and aromas of fresh, vibrant ingredients will thrill your senses led by one of the kitchen brigades with a shopping list for today's menu as your guide. You will be led through the labyrinth of tunnel-like passageways that weave from one area of the market to the other. Return to the indoor kitchen where you will be guided through time-honored Khmer cooking techniques to create some of its most storied dishes from preparation to cooking. Lastly, time to enjoy your culinary creation serving as your lunch.

Duration: Half-day (9.00 am – 1.30 pm)

Option 2: The Kulen Elephant Forest Sanctuary

8.00 a.m., enjoy a 1-hour scenic drive to the Kulen Elephant Forest sanctuary where you will learn about the project, enjoy nature, and interact with elephants: Introductory briefing, elephant meets and greet, observation trek (2km), and watch the elephants play by the pond.

Duration: Half-day (8.00 am – 1.30 pm)

Option 3: Explore Angkor's less-visited temples

Venture on a less-traveled road deep into Angkor Park to discover the hidden gems of Angkor – another fascinating corner of Angkor including the mountain temple of Pre Rup, the East Mebon temple (guarded at its corner by stone figures of harnessed elephants), Ta Som is a captivating and charming temple (like Ta Prohm, there is a tree growing through part of the structure which provides excellent photo opportunities), Neak Pean, or the "coiled serpents" is a fountain built in the middle of a pool, and Preah Khan or "Sacred Sword" – constructed as a monastery and teaching complex in 1191 by Jayavarman VII, it is unique in its sense of religious tolerance, with sections dedicated to Buddhism, ancestor worship, and the Hindu gods Shiva and Vishnu. Once inside the second enclosure, look for the delicate frieze of 'apsaras' or celestial dancers, in the Hall of Dancers.

Duration: Half-day (morning or afternoon)

Option 4: Experience local traditions and Siem Reap's atmospheric countryside

Travel a bit further away from town to Rolous village to immerse yourself in the local culture with a walk into the life of the Khmer people – an insider's look at the intriguing culture and Siem Reap's atmospheric countryside beyond Angkor Wat. You will visit a Buddhist monastery – offer alms to a Buddhist monk to earn some merits in Buddhist tradition and practice the arts of giving followed by a blessing in the Pali language from the monk, the way the locals do for the wishes of good luck and happiness in life. Then wander through the nearby Bakong temple, Angkor's first mountain temple dating back to the 8th and 9th centuries and still remarkably well preserved. Next soak up the views of the rural village, paddy fields, and swaying palm trees while crossing quiet lanes by ox cart.

Duration: Half-day (morning or afternoon)

Option 5: Siem Reap Quade Bike adventure

Take a break from temples and enjoy guided tours on Quads (Terrain Vehicles) around the countryside and traditional local villages of Siem Reap. You can enjoy the tour as long as you want to start from 1-hour adventure to a full day off-the-beaten-track excursion. The sunset tour by quad bike is an exciting experience; this allows you to see the real rural area of Siem Reap and have the opportunity to spot a spectacular sunset view over paddy fields.

Note: Sunset quad bike tour (1 hour+, start @5.00 pm)

Evening option: Visit Phare Circus Performance by Phare Artists:

"Phare, the Cambodian Circus" is an offshoot project of Phare Ponleu Selpak (PPS), performed by students and professional artists from the center and used to perform around the world. It's an amazing blend of traditional and modern theatre, music, dance, acrobatics, juggling, and contortion beautifully choreographed and performed in a story about Cambodian lives and society.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 5 (B/D) – SIEM REAP / BATTAMBANG

After breakfast, continue by overland to Battambang, an impressive French colonial riverside town located on the Sangké River. The journey takes almost 3 hours (170 km). Battambang is Cambodia's second-largest province and biggest rice bowl, giving it a relaxed, small town that many visitors love. Beautiful hilltop temples and pretty villages dot the surrounding countryside. Upon arrival proceed to check in at your hotel.

Early this evening, enjoy a walking tour of this charming town to see its iconic Buddhist monastery and numerous colonial buildings. Taste some local street foods and seasonal fruits and lastly enjoy your dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight in Battambang (2 nights)

DAY 6 (B) – BATTAMBANG / FULL-DAY TOUR

This morning, take a chance to experience the thrilling Bamboo train, called a Norry in Khmer, the "train" consists of a small bamboo platform covered with a mat and a few thin cushions to sit on.

You may climb the 358 stone steps leading to the five towers of Phnom Banan – a 1000-year-old Khmer temple sporting superb carvings, reputedly the inspiration for Angkor Wat – from where you'll drink in sweeping views.

Sip at a Winery – Prasat Phnom Banan Winery is your chance to taste a variety of wines like you'll find no place else. Cambodia's only winery, this unique vineyard grows its very own organic grapes to make some unique blends.

For the rest of the day, visit the Ancient Khmer house, watch the traditional rice paper-making, and spend the sunset watching millions of bats that stream from the caves for a night of hunting. A true spectacle that lasts for up to 40 minutes.

Overnight in Battambang

DAY 7 (B) – BATTAMBANG / PHNOM PENH

Today, drive to the vibrant capital of Phnom Penh, the capital of Cambodia, is a city of contrasts. From the grandeur of the Royal Palace to the somber reality of the Killing Fields, there is something for everyone in this fascinating city. The journey takes approximately 5 hours (291 km).

Make a few stops along the way for photo shooting and visit to a traditional pottery community in Kampong Chhnang. Next visit Oudong Mountain, which once was Cambodia's ancient capital called Oudong Meanchey, and literally means "noble victory" for around 200 years until it was moved to Phnom Penh. Oudong remains a sacred place where the construction of a huge stupa has recently been built to store and conserve the relic of Preah Serei Roek Theat (Ash of the Buddha). Climb the stairs to the top of Oudong Mountain and enjoy magnificent views over the plains below.

If time permits, continue to the nearby spectacular Vipassana Dhura Buddhist Meditation Centre and see the impressive jade Buddha, the mummified monk, and the brightly painted walls telling the story of the Ramayana, the epic Sanskrit poem. You may be interested in exploring the village of Kampong Luong, once the royal port for Oudong, the village has been home to generations of silversmiths. You can watch cups, bowls, and boxes being crafted by the hard-working villagers.

Upon arrival, proceed to check in at your hotel and enjoy the rest of the day free at leisure.

Overnight in Phnom Penh (2 nights)

DAY 8 (B/L) – PHNOM PENH / FULL-DAY CITY TOUR

Today is a full day to explore the city's highlights. Start with the glittering Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, admiring the over 5,000 silver tiles covering the floor and the collection of shiny golden Buddhas. Then walk to visit the National Museum, home to the country's most important collection of ancient Cambodian artifacts. Built-in 1917 in traditional Khmer style, the museum grounds also feature a peaceful, palm-shaded central courtyard and lotus ponds – ideal places to contemplate one of Asia's richest cultures.

Afternoon absorb moving reminders of Cambodia's troubled recent history at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum, a former school turned into the S-21 prison –essentially a torture center –by the murderous Khmer Rouge regime, and the notorious killing fields of Choeung Ek, where some 17,000 people met their ends. Although not a joyful tour, visiting these monuments unlocks the keys to understanding the development of this still-developing country.

Special note: If you do not wish to visit these horror sites, you may spend this afternoon exploring the spiritual Wat Phnom, a city landmark, for which the capital was named and a popular place for worship, and the famous Central Market (Phsar Thmei), which is a unique colonial-style building constructed in 1937. The location where the Central Market now sits was once a swamp area occupied by a lake known as Beng Decho. Today, this beautiful market has become a prominent landmark in Phnom Penh.*

Overnight in Phnom Penh

DAY 9 (B) - PHNOM PENH / KEP

Morning transfer by overland to the seaside town of Kep (3 hours, 175 km). En route, detour to explore Kampong Trach Limestone Cave, where brightly colored five-headed Naga serpents guard the entrance. There are also a number of shrines outside the caves.

Continue to Kep, check in at your hotel, and enjoy free at leisure.

Overnight in Kep (2 nights)

DAY 10 (B/L) – KEP / KAMPOT / KEP

This morning, visit the popular Kep crab market and experience the bustling atmosphere as you see crabs stored in baskets in shallow water and being cooked right there in the market.

Continue to La Plantation, a family-owned pepper plantation, and visit the salt farms along the way. At the pepper farm, take a tour to learn about the differences between green, black, white, and red peppers, and enjoy lunch at the farm's restaurant (with a chance to taste some fresh green peppercorns).

Finally, drive to explore the charming and quiet river town of Kampot. See the old French colonial buildings and leisurely enjoy some beer at the Riverside restaurant (own expense) before turning to Kep or you may opt for a relaxing sunset cruise along Kampot River (sharing).

Continue to Kep, check in at your hotel, and enjoy free at leisure.

Overnight in Kep

DAY 11 (B) – KEP / SIHANOUKVILLE, THE ISLANDS

After breakfast, take a three-hour coastal drive to Sihanoukville (130 Km), followed by a shared speedboat transfer to an idyllic offshore island. Afternoon free at leisure to enjoy swimming.

You might think you need to head to Thailand or Indonesia to experience those tropical beaches with white sand and crystal-clear waters, but Cambodia also has one of the best beaches in Southeast Asia. Barely one hour's ferry ride from the ever-evolving coastal city of Sihanoukville, Cambodia's tropical islands are an eminently accessible slice of paradise on earth. Settle into the lush life with our suggestions of luxury getaways on Cambodia's picturesque islands.

Where to stay:

Song Saa Private Island

The twin 'sweetheart' islands of Song Saa are simply the last word in luxury island living, just 35 minutes from Sihanoukville port rests amongst an undeveloped and scenic terrain of rain forests rocks, boulders, and seascape. Dreamed up by a husband-and-wife team who spent years working to bring their vision of these idyllic islands to life, this five-star retreat is an exercise in understated style studded with over-water villas, winding pathways, private pools, top cuisine, and majestic ocean vistas.

Six Senses Krabey Island

As you'd expect, this is the perfect place to feast your senses on the richness of island life. This private island takes only 15 minutes to reach by speedboat, but once you arrive, you might not want to leave. The 12-hectare private resort features 40 free-standing pool villas, an extensive Six Senses Spa, a sunset bar, two unique restaurants, an ice cream parlor, a horizon lap pool, an outdoor fitness circuit, an oceanfront boardwalk, a beachfront sundeck, open-air cinema, and sky observatory.

Koh Russey Villas & Resort

An ultra-contemporary island hideaway in "the Cambodian Riviera", the Koh Russey Villas & Resort offers laid-back chic with a blend of wellness, epicureanism, relaxation, and adventure, on the longest private beach on the archipelago. It's the perfect fusion of convenience, comfort, and indulgence in an idyllic tropical island environment. 20 minutes from the airport by car and 10 minutes by boat from the shore.

The Royal Sands Koh Rong

This is a true island villa experience and, true to the name, you'll feel like royalty here as you settle into your beachfront home away from home. The largest of Cambodia's islands in the Gulf of Thailand, Koh Rong isn't a private island like the others on this list. That said, much of Koh Rong is minimally developed, home only to rustic fishing villages and coconut palm, meaning this.
